(d) if not, the reasons therefor and other remedial steps Government propose to take in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) The news-item appearing in the Times of India dated August 31, 1991 refers to:

(i) Non-deduction of pension from salary of the Vice-Chancellor of Jawaharlal Nehru University;

(ii) Defalcation of funds in the School of International Studies; and

(iii) The alleged mis-appropriation of funds by Prof. A. K. Verma of the School of Life Sciences of the University.

These complaints had been brought to Government's notice earlier also and Government had called for detailed comments of the University. According to the information furnished by JNU, the position in this regard is as follows:

(i) Prof. M. S. Agwani, Vice-Chancellor, Jawaharlal Nehru University is drawing his pension in addition to his pay since 1-3-1988. The University is of the view that the pay of Prof. Agwani has been fixed in accordance with Statute 3 of the Statutes of the University and that these Statutes do not provide for deduction of pension from the salary of Vice-Chancellor.

(ii) Defalcation of funds to the tune of about Rs. 2.32 lakhs on account of postage stamps and franking machine in the School of International Studies was detected by the University in April, 1989. After preliminary investigations, the University appointed in September, 1989 a Fact-Finding Committee to inquire to the said defalcation of funds. The report of the inquiry was received by the University in August, 1990. JNU has informed hat on the basis of the findings of the Inquiry Committee, the University initiated disciplinary proceedings against the six defaulting employees. The inquiry is near completion.

(iii) Vice-Chancellor, JNU had costituted a Fact-Finding Committee in October, 1990 to look into the alleged irregularities in the bills submitted by Prof. A. K. Verma of the School of Life Sciences in respect of a Workshop organised by him in December, 1989. The report of the Committee was received by the University in June, 1991 On the basis of the findings of the Committee, the University has initiated disciplinary action against Prof. A. K. Verma.
